

The Peace, Justice and Security Foundation named AE Ramassà from Barcelona, as it's sports club ambassador for United Nation's Sustainable Development Goal 16 to promote, through sports, peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, access to justice for all and the creation of effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.

AE Ramassà will be the football club to transmit these values through football and training in sport and values with its solidarity expeditions to Africa and around the world, where they will engage in football matches and other activities to create awareness about Peace, Justice and Security.
